

Sermon Notes: May 15th 2022

Subjectivity: Testimony as Evangelism

Acts 9:1-6; 22:1-10; 26:1-18; Ga 1:13-16; 1 Ti 1:12-17; 1 Co 15:9-11

Observations & Conclusions: Testimony - 2 Options

1. What God _____ in my life - Your Conversion

A. _____ - Your testimony must give an honest assessment of our sins as a non-Christian

- identify your blindness, mistakes, and sins - "...that saved a wretch like me"

B. _____ - Your testimony must elevate God's grace and mercy as abundant

- identify God's blessings, mercy, and saving grace - "...but now I'm found"

C. _____ - Your testimony must reveal God's redirection and restoration

- identify the new direction of your life and calling - "...was blind but now I see"

2. What God _____ in my life - Your Discipleship

A. _____ - Your testimony must describe the immovable or the impossible

- identify the trial that you couldn't break through on your own

- "Through many dangers, toils, and snares..."

B. _____ - Your testimony must credit God's grace of provision

- identify the lessons and actions that God provided

- "Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far..."

C. _____ - Your testimony must reveal your continued growth in discipleship

- identify how His provision becomes bridge towards growth

- "...and grace will lead me home"

Application:

1. _____

2. _____ sharing your testimony. If you were called as a witness on trial for giving evidence of God's work in your life - what would you say?