

Sermon Notes: March 29th 2026

Biblical Justice & the Vulnerable

Matthew 21:12-27

Observations: The Quintet of the Vulnerable:

1. _____ - resourcelessness makes them vulnerable - no self-sufficiency
 2. _____/_____ - weakness makes them vulnerable - no flourishing capacity
 3. _____ - defenselessness makes them vulnerable - no covenantal covering
 4. _____ - voicelessness makes them vulnerable - no social advocacy
 5. _____ - homelessness make them vulnerable - no eco/political protection
- Why: The curse of sin expressed as a tangible physical permanent _____

The Triumphal Entry inaugurates a _____ where the humble King exposes and judges systems that protect injustice, liberates the broken and deceived, and establishes a new order where God's presence is inseparable from justice for the vulnerable

Conclusions:

1. When the King shows up, He immediately sets up _____
2. When the King shows up, the imposters will _____ and _____
3. When the King shows up, He models His _____
 1. God's Justice exposes the wicked and does _____
 2. God's Justice cares for the _____
 3. God's Justice elevates the voice of the _____
 4. God's Justice says no "religion" without _____
 5. God's Justice rests upon no other authority than _____

Application:

1. Are you _____ for Jesus to arrive?